Next Sunday, November 5, we will observe All Saints' Sunday, a time of remembrance and celebration of all our loved ones and friends, whether members of this congregation or not, who have died this year or in previous years. Even though we grieve for them, we also celebrate their new lives in Christ, and we celebrate their influence in our lives.

If you'd like to share a memory of your loved ones or friends, take a few minutes to write a tribute, a brief paragraph relating a particular time or story that you hold in your heart, or a favorite quote or expression of theirs. All of your contributions will be compiled into a bulletin insert for All Saints' Sunday. Even if you've submitted a tribute before, please feel free to share another.

You may e-mail your contributions to Elizabeth Ross at Mross25213@aol.com. You may also write your memories on a piece of paper and put it in the basket marked "Special Memories" at the back of the Sanctuary. Please submit your contribution by Monday, October 30.

In addition, we'll have a photo collage of our loved ones and friends on the sanctuary screens during the service. If you have a photo you'd like to share you may bring it by the church office or give it to Molissia Fitzwater for scanning, or e-mail it to her at MolissiaF@gmail.com by Monday, October 30.

You may sign your submissions or contribute anonymously.

The church office received the following note this week:

Hello St. Andrew family,
I just experienced by 13th move and it was a whirlwind move. There was little time for good-byes. After selling my house (not home without Okey) the girls whisked me right down to Birmingham. I have my own "in-law" suite with Linda & Luis and Mary Margaret & Ben are very close – about three miles. Okey and I made our children adjust to many moves and now it is my turn to adjust. Long gone are the days when families stayed in one area and took care of each other. However, at this time and at the age of 89 I cannot bear to think of changing my membership. I have so many friendships, memories and shared experiences I need to hold on to ---so I will do the best that I can to be a long distance member.

Love and peace,
Mary Frances Combs
