I Have a Dream

Dr. Martin Luther King-August 28, 1963
On January 22, 2019, SNAP students had a very special guest to our classroom. Mr. Ed Rabel, NBC/CBS correspondent and Emmy Award winner, visited our classroom to talk about his experience interviewing Dr. Martin Luther King shortly before he was fatally gunned down. In our thirst for knowledge, SNAP students had extensively studied the life and activities of Dr. King and were anxious to talk to Mr. Rabel A true and natural teacher, Mr. Rabel fascinated staff and students as he shared his experiences with us. SNAP students and staff gained valuable knowledge and an increased understanding of the civil rights struggle.
We thank him for taking the time to spend with us and look forward to having him return to discuss his world travel and news experience. THANK YOU, Mr. Rabel!

A BIG THANK YOU to all who attended Wednesday night's dinner. We're so grateful for your generosity in giving towards the memorial bench to be purchased in memory of Becky Bostic. If you were unable to attend the dinner, and would still like to contribute, please see Diana Taylor.
