Mary Lou Stowers received the following note and wanted to share with the church:

"Mary Lou, This is long overdue but better than never! Thank you so much for the prayer pillow from your church! I appreciate it so much. Also, thank you for the prayers – the greatest "gift" we can give someone.

This is a journey Ed and I would rather not have taken, but we have learned so much about ourselves, each other and our faith through the journey! God always has the "needed" plan for our good!

Please relay our thanks to the group who makes the pillows! A wonderful Ministry!

Hope you are well! I miss seeing everyone at church, but just can't be in crowds. We have had a few weekends home, Ed goes but I stay home. It is too risky at this point. I am 59 days past transplant today! Almost there! Have to be here 100 days.

Thank you again!
In Christian Love, Vicki Meisterhans"
