“The Gathering”

I want to invite all women to “The Gathering” on Sunday, April 29, 2:30 pm. The Gathering is an intergenerational event to celebrate the life of women at St. Andrew and beyond. It will be an informal time of fellowship and intentional conversation. This is an opportunity for women to build relationships outside of their normal circles. I’m excited for this inaugural event; please RSVP to the church office (304-727-7114 or saintandrewumc@suddenlinkmail.com). Child care will be provided.

EASTER MEDITATIONS

“The disciples felt a great joy when they saw the risen Lord...they announced what they knew, that in Christ the new life has already begun, that He is Life Eternal, the Fulfillment, the Resurrection, and the Joy of the world.”

--Rev. Alexander Schmermann

“Those who sleep past a sunrise miss one of nature’s most beautiful sights. It comes at a calm and peaceful part of the day, before the noise of street traffic, carpenters’ saws, and jack-hammers. Sometimes only a rooster’s crow breaks the silence. A sunrise is more than the beginning of a new day, more than the end of a night of darkness. It is another throb in the pulse of time. There is the rhythm of days, of the rising of the sun. Dawn, sunrise, then daylight, bring a new day unblemished, un-lived.”

--Rev Jim Reed
