

“See. Love. Celebrate.”

John 9:1-41 | 03.19.23

Sermon Recap

- The story of Greg and Diane
- It is not our job to draw the line between truth and grace; it is simply our job to see the needs of others, and love and celebrate them.
- We should take our own sin seriously, but it isn't our job to focus on the sins of others.
- Jesus teaches us that one of the greatest sins we can commit is the judgment and exclusion of others.

Questions for Reflection and Discussion:

1. Would you rather have the ability to communicate with animals, or the ability to speak 10 different languages?
2. What questions does this week's message raise for you?
3. What work do you think God performs in someone's life when we choose to see them, love them, and celebrate them, instead of judging them and excluding them?
4. How might the story of Jesus, the blind man, and the religious leaders inspire your discipleship journey?
5. How have you witnessed God's grace recently?
6. How can we pray for you?
